

By the Lord Deputy & Councell.

HENRY FALKLAND.

Whereas the king our Soueraigne Lord Charles by the grace of God king of Great Britaine, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. hath by sundrie Proclamations, published aswell in England, as in this kingdome, and other his Dominions given to vnderstand to all his most louing faithfull and obedient Subjects, and to euery of them, That it hauing pleased Almighty God, on Sunday the seauen and twentieth day of March last, to call vnto his infinite mercie the most Excellent, high and mightie Prince King IAMES, of most noble and blessed memorie, his Maiesties most deare, and most intirely beloued father, That now the kings Maiestie, being his onely Sonne and vndoubted Heire, is thereby invested and established in the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, and all other his Maiesties Realmes, Dominions, and Countries, with all Regalities, Preheminences, Stiles, Names, Titles, and Dignities to the same belonging or in any wise appertayning. Now his Maiesties further will and pleasure is, to haue it declared: And we the Lord Deputie and Councell of this kingdome doe in his Maiesties Name, and by his Royall commaundement, signifie and declare vnto all his most louing, faithfull, and obedient Subjects, That like as his Maiestie, for his part shall by gods grace, shew himselfe a most gracious and benigne Soueraigne Lord to all his good Subjects, in all their iust and lawfull suites and causes: So his Maiestie mistrusteth not but they, and euery of them, will againe on their parts, at all times, and in all causes, shew themselves vnto his Maiestie, their Naturall Liege Lord, most louing, faithfull, and obedient Subjects, according to their most bounden duties and allegiances, whereby they shall please Almighty god, and doe that which shall tend to their owne preservations and safeties, Willing and commanding all persons of all estates, degrees, and conditions, to see his Maiesties peace duly kept, and to be obedient to his Lawes, as they tender his Maiesties gracious fauour, and will answere for the contrarie at their vttermost perils. given at his Maiesties Castle of Dublin, the 10. of Aprill, in the first yeare of his Maiesties Raigne.

Adam Loftus Canc.

Rich. Powerscourt.

Tobie Caulfield

Henry Docwra

Frans. Blundell.

Dudly Norton.

Will. Parsons.

Roger Jones.

Iohn King.

God save the King.

Imprinted at Dublin by the Societie of Stationers, 1625.